

BBR Art Director
garners Society of Illustrators award

Over the years, BBR Creative Senior Art Director Denise Gallagher has garnered numerous awards both for individual efforts and professional projects for the Lafayette agency. Recently, Denise joined the ranks of illustrators she considers her own personal, artistic inspirations. On Feb. 6, New York's prestigious Society of Illustrators will present Denise with an award naming her one of 2008's Top International Illustrators.

It began in early 2008, when Von Glitschka, renowned illustrator and familiar face in the design community, put the call out for 10 illustrators to demonstrate how his patterns could be used in art and design. Upon viewing Denise's work, he personally asked her to contribute to his upcoming book, "Drip. Dog. Swirl." The result was "Her Guests Considered Her Unconventionally Charming." a work that Glitschka would embrace for his book and that Denise would later submit to the Society of Illustrators.

After reviewing the work, the Society, in turn, named Gallagher one of 2008's Top 300 International Illustrators. Her work will be featured as part of the Society's illustrator exhibition, as well as in a full-color edition of the collected work. She will accept her award Feb. 6 at New York City's Museum of American Illustration at the Society of Illustrators.

"We are very proud of Denise's work and her contribution to the Society of Illustrators," says BBR Creative Director and Partner Cathi D. Pavy. "At BBR, we want our employees to pursue their personal goals while they pursue professional growth. We believe the two go hand-in-hand and are happy to support Denise in her illustrations."
